9. Mary Keyes⁸, born February 04, 1762 in Shrewsbury, Worcester, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of 18. Cyprian Keyes and 19. Martha Bush.

Notes for Amos Bennett:

It appears that Jane Shaw died, and that Amos remarried to a Mary Keyes, having more children. This information was given by Mrs. David Powers of Cortland New York, a daughter of Amos' child Sarah. This information was given by Lewis J. Bennett, great-grandson of Amos, in 1917 when he was 84 years old, and sent to Mrs. Estelle Dexter Wright to help her trace her lineage to an American Revolutionary for the purpose of becoming a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Amos Bennett of Locke, Cayuga County, New York was a soldier and served as a private in the 14th Albany County New York State Militia, Col. Knickerbockers Regiment in Captain Abbott's Company, as stated in the "History of New York in the Revolution as Colony and State." Amos Bennett received his final pay for Revolutionary war services at Hassick New York, January 17, 1786. Below is an extract from J. R. Simons history, "The Frontiersman of New York", Vol 2, pages 586, 587, and 588, relating the arrest of John Parker, a celebrated Tory spy, in 1782 by Capt. Amos Bennett, 3rd Regiment Tryon Co. Militia. Before the close of the Revolutionary war, Amos moved from Albany County to Scotchbush, Montgomery County, New York, where he resided when an Indian raid was made by Sir John Johnson, son of Sir William Johnson on the Mohawk Valley settlers October 25, 1788, burned their houses, destroyed their crops and captured many of the people and took them to Canada as prisoners. After the war Amos moved into the town of Locke, Cayuga County, where he died about 1830. The Moravia cemetery where he was buried was in part washed away July 31, 1833 and all trace of his death was destroyed. His daughter Sarah Bennett Einne was buried in that Moravia Cemetery that was saved and marked by a tombstone.

Extract from J. R. Simms history, "The Frontiersman of New York", vol.2, pages 586-588, relating to the arrest of John Parker, a celebrated Tory spy, in 1782 by Capt. Amos Bennett, 3rd Regiment Tryon County Militia.

"The Arrest and Execution of John Parker, the Johnstown Spy--One of the most interesting events which transpired in the vicinity of Johnstown in the Revolution, was the capture of John Parker. He was brought up in Philadelphia Bush, and went to Canada at an Early period of the war. In 1751, Frost Howland lived on the old Parker place. John Parker, had from the beginning of the war, been one of the most daring and most active partizans, who had followed the Johnson family to Canada. Often had he been on the frontiers of New York, sometime in the character of a spy, and at others in that of an open foe -- his energies all bent on the injury or destruction of his former neighbors and friends. He had a constitution fitted to endure all manner of hardships, and an exposure to all kinds of weather: which enabled him to traverse the wilderness at seasons the most unpropitious, and steal into the settlements when a foe was unexpected -- to find a resting place at the dwelling of some Tory friend, where he might recruit and gain desired information: but he came one time too many."

Amos is buried in Dry Creek Cemetery, Moravia, NY
