Generation No. 1

1. AMBROSE<sup>2</sup> WILLIAMS (THOMAS (REL)<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1730 in Newport, Pembroke, Wales. He married (1) MARY MOOR in North Carolina. She was born 1738 in England. He married (2) JANE INMAN.

Notes for AMBROSE WILLIAMS:

Ambrose was a Welchman. He was a millwright by trade but engaged in farming toward the latter part of his life. He possessed a large property but was broken up by the depreciation of continental money. He was twice married. His first wife was Mary Moor. They lived in North Carolina before and during the war of the Revolution and had several sons old enough to serve in the war. (From April 19, 1775 to July 4, 1776.) After the death of Mary Moor he married Jane Inman. He had several children by his second marriage but their names are not available. By his first marriage he had six children. Notes for JOHN GARRETT WILLIAMS:

At one time he represented Cole County, Missouri in the State Legislature. In 1830 he moved to St. Louis and in 1837 to Cedar County, Missouri. He was a mill right and built Cedar Mill, the first mill in Cedar County. He lived in a very neat log house and aside from his mill he cultivated a nice garden with many beautiful flowers, every row equal distance apart and beds and walks perfectly straight. He was a great lover of books and had a large library for that time. He took great pains with his small grandchildren, Francis Marion and Nancy Jane Williams, to teach them to be honest, truthful and to love and learn their books. After a few years his mill washed away, then he moved to Sac River and built another mill. He was a man respected and loved by a large circle of friends. He died of pneumonia at the age of 52 years.

Page: 788, 789: Harden M. Williams, who is classed among the prominent farmers and stock-dealers of Cedar County, Mo., was born on his present farm November 21, 1842, and is the son of Judge Robert and Lavica (Williams), and the grandson of Robert Williams, Sr., who was of Welch extraction, and who died in Cedar County, Mo. Mrs. Williams' father, John G. Williams, was also an early settler of Cedar County, Mo., and built a grist-mill on Cedar Creek, one of the first in Southwestern Missouri, and supplied the whole country with flour and meal. Judge Williams was born in South Carolina and 1806, removed with his parents to Middle Tennessee, and in an early day emigrated to Miller County, Mo., and in 1837 to what is now Cedar County. He settled in the woods on Cedar Creek, several miles from any other settlement, improved a good farm, and there spent the rest of his life, dying July 12, 1881. He had lived on the same farm for forty-four years, and was one of the very first white settlers in that region. He was fond of hunting, and, as the forest abounded with wild animals, he had abundant opportunities to test his skill as a marksman. He lived in three counties, and did not move. For about three years, from 1867, he was judge of the county court, and was one of the county's sturdy, honest pioneers. He was a man of considerable means, was very successful in all business operations, and for many years acted as banker in his vicinity, loaning money to all in need of it. Although born and reared in the South, he was a staunch Union man during the war, and held the rank of captain. He was married four times, and all the children living are by the first wife. Harden M. Williams is the fifth of four sons and two daughters - these living, viz.: Francis M., of Nebraska; Fernetta, wife of James M. Preston; Harden M., and J. K. all of Cedar County. Harden M. received an ordinary education in the common schools, and August 15, 1862, he enlisted in Company F, Fortieth Iowa Volunteer

Infantry, and was in active service for three years. He was in the siege of Vicksburg, was at the capture of Little Rock with Steel's expedition, and was at the capture of Camden. He was mustered out at Fort Gibson, I. T., and was discharged at Davenport, Iowa, August 15, 1865. He was never captured or wounded, and rode the same horse home which he had taken from home in 1861. In 1869 Miss Ida Sherman became his wife. She was born in Cass County, Mo., in 1853, and is the daughter of John and Elizabeth Sherman, natives of Vermont and Ohio, respectively. My and Mrs. Sherman were married in the last named State, and came to Cedar County, Mo., a few years previous to the war. There Mrs. Sherman is still living, but Mr. Sherman died in 1874. To Mr. Williams and wife were born four children, three sons living: J. Robert, Oscar E. and Freddie M. Mr. Williams lived five years in Box Township, and then moved to the farm of his birth, where he has 580 acres, 200 under cultivation. He is one of the leading farmers and stockmen of the county. He is a Republican in politics, and his first presidential vote was for Lincoln in 1864. He has been a member of the Masonic Fraternity, Clintonville Lodge, since 1882, and is a member of the G. A. R., Col. Leonard Post, at El Dorado. He and wife have been members in good standing for nearly twenty years in the Baptist Church, and he has been deacon in the same for some time. His father served on the first grand jury held in St. Clair County when it included Cedar County.

He served in the War between the states 40th Iowa Infantry. From 8/15/1862 till 8/15/1865

Marriage Notes for BUELAH WILLIAMS and HENRY GRIESBACH:

The marriage of Mr. Arch Griesbach and Miss Beulah Williams was solemnized at Sedalia Wednesday, July 15th, at 6 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev W.B. McGraw, a Baptist minister of Sedalia. The groom came here a few weeks ago from Caloifornia, MO, to assume charge as local manager of the West Missouri Power Company. The bride is a daughter of Dr. J. R. Williams, of El Doroado Springs. She is well known to many of our people, having been employed as a teacher in the local schools two years ago. The journal joins the many friends of these excellent young people in wishing them much ahhpiness as they journey throught life. The will make their future home in Appleton City.
